This Olivier award-winning show has never been to the Princess Theatre so we are privileged to be presenting its premiere! It is a vibrant and energetic show that brings the brilliant hits of Madness to life through a London love story. Musical numbers include the hits 'Our House', 'Baggy Trousers', 'My Girl', 'Driving in My Car', 'It must be Love'... and many more! The all-important performance dates are Wednesday 21st to Saturday 24th June 2017.

This is a BIG and challenging show with lots of opportunities for both principals and chorus. There are large production numbers and room for all ages! If you haven't done so already, we'd recommended you take a look - you can watch the entire West End show HERE

Meet the Production Team

David Youll - Director

David is really excited to be directing his first show for us and can't wait to get his hands on Our House for a second time. David says "Our House is a busy show for everyone. With so many parts, some performers will have to double up, and if you're not on stage you will probably be getting into your next costume!"

David's most recent directing credits have been with Exmouth Musical Theatre Company, including 'The Witches of Eastwick', 'Jesus Christ Superstar' and 'Our House', to mention just a few.

Elaine Johnson - Choreographer

Elaine has a passion for Our House, having played Joe's mum in Exeter, and was delighted to be asked to choreograph the show for us. Elaine says "There are loads of big production numbers in Our House. I'm really looking forward to creating some spectacular dance numbers that the whole cast can perform in."

Elaine has choreographed some of our top shows and was critically acclaimed for the amazing numbers in our record-breaking production of Grease.

John Amery - Musical Director

John can't wait to get started on Our House. He says "I'm really looking forward to bringing the classic Madness songs to life on the Princess Theatre stage. The audiences will find it hard to keep their feet still and will definitely be singing as they leave!"

John has been MD for our shows since he took over the baton in 2005. He works hard to ensure the music and songs are performed to a very high standard, ready for a professional stage.

The team will be available at our launch should you have any questions!

We look forward to welcoming both current and new members to the launch of Our House.

At this stage we are looking for a cast aged over 16 who have completed their GCSE year at school (at the time of auditioning).

Audition dates will be in February - come along to the launch for more details.
